JOHN (1) (GLAS) e-m b.c 1797 + CHRISTIAN WILSON

Wed 26 July/14 Aug'18; both Glas p.23, by Mr Jas

Stewart, Relief Min. in Anderston (ordained 1775; d.15 June'19;

Anderston; Obit in Herald p.2; age unreadable but in 44th yr of his ministry) Maybe the Rev James Stewart who wrote "The Banners of Britain to enable her brave warriors".?

Also spelt McGilvra '18 & '21.

+ Christian McGilvraw 14 June 1776, Gorbals fr.471;

both Gorbals. Can't find any kids for them].

John is a porter '18-'29. Likely #237 in the Broomilaw

Dist Porter Book at SRA (there were 2;

both spelt McG & both b. Argyll - see John 22), age 37,

5'5", prev job (or possibly father's occupation)=

porter, res= 57 High St (in the 20's I think); Old Wynd

in 16 Aug'34. Note similarity of kids names to those of Hugh McG of Pennyghael. Mary Ann was very rare name in W'n HL but used by Hugh. But used >3x by Wilsons in Glas around 1805. Also, 2 wits for her were Wilsons.

of Christina W.'s b. around 1800 & another one wed 3

Mar'21; Glas p.62 + Wm Wallace, travelling mercht, wed

by John Muir. It's tempting to believe John is Alex of

P-ghael's 2nd son (named after John Maclean) but Hugh is stated to be his only 'lawful' son. See Don (8) who is wed to Cath McA; & Neil (3) who has a JW, porter as wit. The John Wilson is likely a clerk.

[A Mrs McGilvra d.June'32; Glas hosp, age 40. ??

[A Don McGilveray, father of John, d.30 Sept'53; Anderston,

age 92 (b.1761) bur S'n Neocropolis obit?

BUT; the grd-son John (below) was adopted out 20 yrs prior.

=Catherine 2 Oct'21; Glas p.530. Wits= James McArthur &

John Carmichael. (possibly church elders) It is 3 yrs

since parents wed - could a 1st kid have d.; might affect the usual naming procedure. This theory is reinforced because the most likely candidate for Christian's father is Alex. Of course, both grd-dad's could be Alex. And, it was common to name another kid after one that had d.

JOHN (6) (MULL) b.c 1760 + Catherine May

Wed 6 Aug 1786; both Glas p.6. (nothing else on OPR)

He gardener in 1787 & lab 1789 & 1794.

She d.<1802; spelt Main in 1791.

He d.c1809. He was uncle to John McKinnon whose letters (Glas Archives TD 743/2) give the following info on McG.

He (McG) had enlisted in 2nd Batt'n of 42nd Reg't & sent to Nfld. Snow blind & surgeon's cure blinded him in 1 eye. He hurt a leg & was discharged an invalid to Mull. Used a crutch.

Recovered use of his leg & returned to Glas. He became a porter in the warehouse of James Findlay & Co. (who was Kirkman Findlay's father). [Kirkman Findlay, esq of Castle Toward, d.14 Mar'42; age 70. Was elected to 1812 Parl & Lord Provost 1812; was a noted mercht, statue in Mercht's House. Bur in Lower Ch of Glas Cathedral.
Napoleon outlawed all Br imports to Europe in 1805, but Finlay was the biggest blockade runner (also thru the Br fleet) & made a huge fortune]

John McG was steady, active man

& was a valued employee till his death. He was taller & stouter than McKinnon's father. He was a man of keen observation & had a very retentive memory & could speak on any subject; but had no school education & couldn't read or write. Marr. Cath May, from HL's (but she was of pevish disposition). All his family d.<1802; except a son Peter (Padraig beag - little Peter) who died in an accident playing at sports; a big boy fell on him; &
he got a cough & died about 1809.

JOHN (62) (USA) e-mx6 b.1760 + Janet McLeod

He lab in 1789 (McGillevray) (also McG*) (& mostly McGilvra)

He bur 1825, Scotch Ch, Florida Twp, Montgomery Co, NY; (NW of Albany) age 65, lab, Presby; or d.Princeton, Florida Twp; age 67. (Bagley says he d. age 70; & that family emigrated 1740 & was here 1 generation sooner.)

She d.c1830; age 70 at the home of her dau Katie in Argyle Co.

[Judy Rogers says John & his bro Alex were 'conscripted' into the 76th McDonald HL'rs to fight against the American Rebels. Having just wed, arrangements were made to take John's wife, as a camp follower, who made herself useful by cooking & nursing for the troops. In Mar 1779 the 76th (3/4's of whom were highlanders) moved to Perth, Scotland & then ordered to America. Their ship was part of a large fleet which took 26 wks & 3 days to arrive in NY on 27 Aug 1779. In Feb 1781 they moved to Virginia & became part of Lord Cornwallis's forces that later surrendered at Yorktown. They were prisoners of war in Virginia until the peace in 1783.
When released the reg't went back to NY, where those loyalists who wished were given land in NS or were returned to Scot. Alex is said to have returned to Rigg where he was b.c1750; & d.there. BUT; contemporary biographers said the family was in NY 1 generation earlier]

[Doug is guessing that Alex McG*

b. & d. Scot; Presbyterian; + Katherine (Katy) McIntyre, bapt 27 Dec 1732; Kildalton, Islay, Argyll-Sh, Scot, DO John]

In order to explain John's eldest child being b. in NS, I'd guess that he had been a loyalist & had been forced to leave the US. It appears that John was not happy with NS & chose to return to Albany, NY when things 'cooled down'. His family, if they had joined the rebel cause, would have retained their lands there. Many families, during civil wars, had sons in both camps so that no matter the outcome, the family survived.

This fits in with the records saying they came in 1740 from Islay. It might also explain why their son John moved away after he wed.

It is also said they were 8yrs in Albany & then 8yrs in Argyle, NY before going to Princetown (just W of Albany).

She was one of a large family of brothers & sisters who, by their energy & character, have contributed much to the public welfare. Her bro Seth d. a few days before, though she didn't know it, but the veil that hides the spirit realm from mortal sight seemed lifted, & the day before she d. she surprised her friends by exclaiming, "Why, Seth, I did not know you were here."   - d.15 Dec 1878; Albert Lea, Freeborn Co, Minn.

On Fri night last, P.A. McGilvra, a brakeman on a S'n Minnesota freight train, fell under the cars at Armstrong Stn, & had one leg fearfully smashed. Taken to Albert Lea where his leg was amputated above the knee. It was fearfully bruised above the point of amputation, and some internal injuries were inflicted; as the man spat blood. He never recovered from the shock and failed gradually until Sun forenoon, when death relieved him of his sufferings. He was from Baraboo, Wis., where his parents reside, who were promptly telegraphed. It is thought he attempted to get on the train when it was in motion.

 Ferguson cem (no stone but he's listed in the caretakers book).
 Obit in "Sac City Sun"; John McGilvra, an old and good man, d. at the home of his son Rev. J. A. McGilvra, in Wall Lake Twp.
 While a young man he received injuries that deprived him of most of his sight except that provided by the optic nerve via an artificial eye. With this impediment he raised a large family of children and was always a hard worker. But after 25 yrs this began to fail and 10 yrs later he became totally blind. But his restless, or rather his industrious habits, would brook no idleness & he worked constantly at such employment as chair & basket making. During the past year or two he had made his home with his son C.C., a mile E of our town, having lived with some one of his children here & there for many years. He was a devoted Christian & often gave his testimony earnestly and pathetically in our churches. (called 'blind' John/F.)

+ 1. Margaret Grant wed <1819; Washington Co, NY.

His family 1st settled in Washington Co, NY in 1740. John McGilvra was the 3rd generation of farmers. He was born reared & married in Washington Co. After they wed, they moved out & bought a farm in Livingston Co, NY.

 Geo says SO Alex/M McG + Katy McIntyre

The orig settlers of Argyll, NY seem to have been from Islay.

Capt Laughlan Campbell of Islay brought over 3 colonies of settlers, mainly from Islay/Jura, 1738/1740.

1738; 33 families + 49 singles, totalling 177 people

1739; 42                    24                    193

1740; 15                    46                    100

NY officials tried cheating the settlers of their promised land & ended up renegeing on grants. Settlers were left to fend for themselves & many moved on looking for work. After 26 yrs (1764), gov't finally gave land to C's sons for splitting amongst remaining settlers.

A John McGilvrey, b.c 1710 + Catarine McDonald family sailed from Islay Nov 1740 to NY; Whyte; Scots Immig to U.S. #3907. Pt Charlotte museum says to Cda.

Another source says from Jura.

John McElvery d.<1763; with one son in Amboy when list made of persons alive & eligible for grant.

Hugh McIlvray got 200 acres lot 118 in 1764. Originally, lot 118 went to Ann Kemple but it didn't go thru. Hugh sold out to Geo Dennis 1765.

Early deeds weren't recorded but Hugh is shown on map<sup>v</sup> of orig owners, made in 1764 ("Ft Edward Book" by Robt Bascom, 1903).

Effie McIlvray also came over 1740 & then living in NY.

 He was reared on the farm & attended schools there until 1844, when he removed with his parents to Ill. There he taught school for several winters, & in the summer attended the Seminary at Elgin."
 He d.19 Dec 1903; Lake Washington, King Co, (Seattle);
 age 76, lawyer, conservationist, Wash state legislator '66, Judge John J. McGilvra, one of Seattle's oldest pioneers & one of the city's best known public men, died at his home on Lake Washington. Death was mainly due to jaundice.
 Leaves widow, two dau's (Mrs. Thomas Burke & Miss Lillian) & son Oliver C. (a member of the law firm of Burke, Shephard & McGilvra). Also; two bro's, C.C. & Dunc, of Iowa.
 John McGilvra came W in 1861 & settled at Olympia.
 He & Ab Lincoln had adjoining law offices in Chicago for many years & he claimed he was a close acquaintance of Abe's altho none of the latter's many biographers substantiate this. However, the newly elected Pres did ask (or was asked) Mr McGilvra to be US attorney for Wash Territory. Maybe John helped his campaign & got this political appointment. After 2 years he resigned to take up priv practice, & retired 10 years ago, due to age & failing health. He had an active interest in all public affairs, such as the Lake Washington Canal idea. In 1864, he moved from Olympia to Seattle. The beautiful home sites on L. Washington were then dense wilderness. He was well liked & helped make Seattle what it is. He was not a member of any secret society, nor associated with any church. John was involved with roads & RR's in Wash, & was instrumental in many advancements of the welfare of the state. He was a man of absolute integrity, supreme courage, both physical & moral, & exceptional tenacity of purpose. His personality has been deeply impressed upon the growth & dev't of Seattle. Fought the greedy RR's.
